2026 · WHAT ISSUES SHOULD I CONSIDER IF I EXPERIENCE A SUDDEN WEALTH EVENT?

AimWell FINANCIAL®

TAX PLANNING ISSUES	YES	NO
Are you able to control the timing and terms of the wealth event? If so, review your payout options and consider booking transactions strategically across tax years to minimize the tax liability.	☐	☐
Will the wealth event have ordinary income tax character and consequences (e.g., inherited traditional IRA RMDs, bonuses, severance pay, certain settlements)? If so, consider the following: ■ If tax isn't withheld, reserve adequate cash to pay income tax, and make estimated payments, if necessary. ■ If you are on Medicare and the income increases your MAGI above $109,000 ($218,000 if MFJ), you may become subject to Part B and Part D surcharges in two years. ■ If you have net investment income and the income increases your MAGI above $200,000 ($250,000 if MFJ), you may become subject to the 3.8% NIIT.	☐	☐
Will the wealth event have capital gains tax character and consequences? If so, understand what capital gains rate (including the 3.8% NIIT, if applicable) applies to you, and consider harvesting losses to offset gains.	☐	☐
Do you want to reduce your taxable income to minimize tax and stay below certain thresholds? If so, consider maximizing pre-tax contributions to retirement plans, contributing to an FSA and HSA, and making deductible charitable gifts. Be mindful that capital gains may also trigger additional Medicare Part B and Part D surcharges in two years.	☐	☐

LONG-TERM PLANNING ISSUES	YES	NO
Is the wealth event significant enough to dramatically impact your financial position? If so, consider the following: ■ Reevaluate your overall financial plan in light of your change in circumstances. ■ Make appropriate adjustments to your objectives, risk tolerance, time horizon, etc. ■ Adopt wealth preservation strategies that are tailored to your new situation. (continue on next column)	☐	☐

LONG-TERM PLANNING ISSUES (CONTINUED)	YES	NO
Do you have children/grandchildren that will pursue higher education? If so, consider funding 529 accounts or an education trust to save for future educational expenses. See the "What Issues Should I Consider To Fund My Child's College Education?" checklist.	☐	☐
Do you need to review and/or revise your estate plan? If so, provide your updated financial information to your attorney, and plan for the disposition and possible taxation of your estate at your death.	☐	☐
Do you want to make gifts to your family and friends? If so, gifts up to the annual exclusion amount of $19,000 (per year, per donee) are gift tax-free.	☐	☐
Are you charitably inclined? If so, the tax year of the wealth event might be a good time to make a large charitable gift. Direct gifts to charities or a donor advised fund or advanced strategies such as charitable trusts and private foundations can reduce your income tax liability and fulfill your philanthropic goals.	☐	☐

OTHER ISSUES	YES	NO
Will your good fortune be publicized? If so, consider the following: ■ If you won the lottery, you may be able to protect your privacy by claiming the winnings through an entity (e.g., a partnership or trust). Rules vary by state. ■ You may be a target for fraud and scams. ■ Be prepared to address requests from friends and family members for financial assistance.	☐	☐
Do you need to increase protective measures? If so, consider whether physical or cyber security measures are warranted.	☐	☐
Are there state-specific issues that should be considered?	☐	☐
